

WEEKLY UPDATES

GROUND FLOOR OF MAST

Bula vinaka!

This is the first in a series that'll be coming from we at the House of Sarah (HoS), Ministry Office, Anglicare Polynesia, Education Office. The purpose is to inform you of what we are doing and to invite you to share in the journey of discovery, hope, joy, challenges.

This week.....

MONDAY 25/6/18

Elenoa, Lanieta, Trevor and Sione took the last bit of furniture, stationery to the kindergarten at Manava. Hooray! It is open. We celebrate this new development. Vinaka to all who have been working tirelessly to ensure that the children at Maniava do not miss out on this exciting learning opportunity.

Wednesday 27/6/18

The Christian Talanoa Network will be holding their meeting here at the MAST. Members are from other Christian denominations. They are planning the activities for the Break the Silence Sunday on 25/11/18 and 16 Days of Activism on Violence against women.

TODAY... TUESDAY 26/6/18

The staff for the project on Preventing Violence against Women in Fiji's Faith settings (PVAWFFs) - Alisi, Jone, Ema, Josefata and Sua are at St John's Wailoku for a workshop with religious leaders. This is the beginning of our work in the Wailoku community. We have already engaged the communities at St Mark's and St Michael's and All Angels.

Sarah Carers

Christine and Ann are meeting with the Suva Sarah Carers today at St Matthew's Church for a one-day workshop on their role.

Thursday 28/6/18

The third meeting with women of other faiths (Hindu, Muslim) will be held here at MAST. It is hoped that at the end of our conversations that the leaders of other faiths will see the importance of speaking out publicly on violence against women and join the leaders of the Christian faith in the One Voice Campaign.

We thank God for the energy, good health and commitment to serve in this mission field!

We also say vinaka vakalevu to all our partners for their support in many different ways.
